University of Alberta

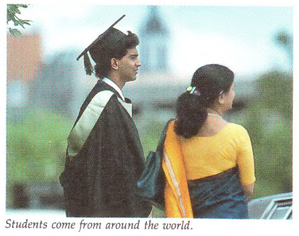
The University of Alberta, Canada's second-largest university, is a national leader in research and teaching. Founded in 1908, the University has developed an international reputation in many fields and excels in medical research, drama, occupational therapy, anthropology, Ukrainian studies, and plant biotechnology.



Students come from around the world.

Students

Student enrollment in 1990 exceeded 38,000, including part-time and Spring and Summer Session students.

Most students attend the main campus in Edmonton. Others attend affiliated centres. Evening credit programs are offered at centres outside Edmonton.

French-language programs, leading to a baccalaureate degree, are offered in science, arts, and education through the Faculté Saint-Jean which attracts students from across Canada.

Students enjoy a break on campus lawns.

Varsity Teams

The University has 16 Varsity teams: nine Bears' teams (men) and seven Pandas' teams (women). All home games are open to the public. To buy tickets, call 492-BEAR (2327)

Summer Sports Camps

The University hosts Summer Sports Camps for children aged 8-18, to develop skills and emphasize fun. For information about the camps call 492-3534

Rick Hansen Centre

The Rick Hansen Centre offers physically disabled adults and children an opportunity to improve physical fitness or athletic performance through a variety of training programs. For information call 492-3182

Varsity teams are enthusiastically supported.

Continuing Education for Adults

The Faculty of Extension "carries the University to the people" and is a leader in developing and delivering continuing education opportunities for adults. Each year more than 40,000 learners participate in 2,000 courses, seminars, workshops and travel tours.

A well-earned rest during Spring Session for Seniors.

Glen Sather Sports Medicine Clinic

For both amateur and professional athletes, the Glen Sather Sports Medicine Clinic offers diagnosis and treatment of sports injuries. Each year the Clinic provides more than 35,000 treatments to members of Varsity and professional teams such as the Edmonton Oilers and Eskimos, as well as to the public. For information call 492-4752

Campus Recreation

The University offers a wide range of fitness and lifestyle programs for staff and students. For information call 492-5607

The "Butterdome", home of international sporting events.

Arts

Studio Theatre, the performance arm of the Department of Drama, produces six plays annually. Temporarily using the Myer Horowitz Theatre in SUB, Studio Theatre will have a new home in the soon-to-be-constructed Timms Arts Centre. For Box Office and information call 492-2495

The Fine Arts Building Gallery is the showcase for students and faculty working in the visual arts. The Gallery is open Sundays from 2-5 pm, weekdays 1-5 pm in the summer and 10-5 pm (except Monday) during the academic year. For information on current exhibits call 492-2081

Campus Tours

Many University buildings and research facilities are open to the public. Tours can be arranged through the Office of Public Affairs, 492-2325

A mural's brilliant colors brighten the scene.

Some points of interest on campus are:

- University Bookstore, one of the largest in Canada
- FAB Gallery, in the Fine Arts Building, exhibiting the work of students and faculty
- HUB International, a residential complex and shopping mall with an international flavor
- SUB, the Students' Union Building
- Myer Horowitz Theatre in SUB, with 600 seats
- Van Vliet Physical Education and Recreation Centre and the bright yellow Universiade Pavilion with its full-size indoor soccer and field hockey pitch, and permanent seating for 6,400 (10,000 for special events)

Farm Tours

The Faculty of Agriculture and Forestry operates several research stations, one of which is the University Farm. Situated close to the main campus, the Farm is also a major swine research facility and home to many other animals as well. Tours for school groups can be arranged in May and June. Call Public Affairs, 492-2325

Student performers take their music seriously.

The Department of Music offers concerts, lectures and workshops to suit a wide spectrum of musical tastes. Programs range from piano trios and choral orchestral extravaganzas to solo performances by artists such as Maureen Forrester, Elly Ameling and Jorge Bolet and lecture recitals by David Burge and William Albright. Every year more than 65 concerts are presented free of charge, usually in Convocation Hall. The talents of faculty and students are displayed in the four-concert Encounters series. For information on forthcoming events call 492-3262

Devonian Botanic Garden

The University's Devonian Botanic Garden, located on Highway 60 and only a ten-minute drive southwest of West Edmonton Mall, is not only a research station, it's also a fascinating place to explore. A collection of many gardens and nature trails, the 190-acre Garden is open to the public from May to September. A Garden Shop is operated by the Crafters' Association. Horticulture and nature crafts courses are offered year round.

In the Devonian Botanic Garden.

Kurimoto Japanese Garden

Opening in September 1990, the Kurimoto Japanese Garden is the world's largest and most northerly Japanese garden. Designed by one of Japan's foremost landscape architects, Tadashi Kubo, the Garden is a visual and auditory delight. It is located in the Devonian Botanic Garden. For information call 987-3054
